

BETUZ commits to working with government

The Basic Education Teachers Union of Zambia (BETUZ) has refuted claims that it has been meeting with a named political party, saying the teacher union remains committed to working with the government of the day.

BETUZ General Secretary Henry Sinkala says BETUZ has never met or held any meeting with any political party.

Addressing members of the press in Lusaka today, Mr Sinkala noted that BETUZ's mission is to collaborate with the government of the day in order to improve the education sector.

He explained that his union is also aware of the malicious attempt to impersonate BETUZ through the creation and operation of a fake facebook page, which has been used to disseminate false and politically charged statements.

"Let it be clearly stated that this act is fraudulent, criminal and intended to deceive the public while tarnishing the good name of our union, we have since reported the matter to relevant law enforcement agencies," he said.

Mr Sinkala added that BETUZ remains a non-partisan, professional and member driven organisation and supports the policies of the government especially in the education sector.

He said the ongoing transformation within Zambia's education sector is both historical and commendable.
